

Say Her Name

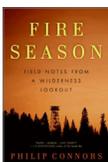

A Novel, by Francisco Goldman

(Grove Press, 9780802119810, $24)

"Remembering is sometimes like 'juggling a hundred thousand crystal balls all at once, trying to keep all these memories going,' writes Francisco Goldman in this autobiographical work. This beautifully written book is, at the same time, an elegant and elegiac novel, a brutal and honest memoir, and the longest and most tender love letter in the world. Say Her Name is a gift of love for the author's beautiful young wife, Aura Estrada, who died after an accident in the waves at Mezunte Beach in Mexico. Aura's absence is deeply felt throughout the whole book, and the last pages will take your breath away."
